In this first issue of 2020, the editorial team of SVN would like to show our sincere gratitude to Dr. Li-Mei Lin from Carondelet Neurological Institute, St. Joseph's Hospital Carondelet Health Network, Tucson, Arizona, USA as our Guest Editor and Dr. Jessica K Campos from Neurosurgery Department at the University of California at Irvine as our Associate Guest Editor. They have organised the majority of the 14 high level articles to make this incredible issue dedicated to the topics of vascular neurosurgery. We are confident that the high quality papers in this issue will offer updated knowledge that will be appreciated by all in the profession.
